In June 1918, the Yprkshire County held a meeting at which some clubs declared their intention to continue playing Wartime football. Eventually, six clubs opted to continue, but Hull Kingston Rovers and Huddersfield stated they would not be continuing.

As the war ended, a meeting of the Northern Union was held on 5th December 1918, to consider the resumption of competitive football. Eventually, on 17th December, it was decided to commence Yorkshire and Lancashire Leagues from January 18th 1919

Hull Kingston Rovers entered the Yorkshire League and, in fact played a couple of Friendly Matches with Hull.F.C. during Christmas 1918.
